The property is composed of: on the ground floor there are a kitchen with fireplace and a large living room; on the first floor there are 2 double bedrooms, a single bedroom and a bathroom. On the second floor there is a loft which can be used as another bedroom and bathroom. The country house is fully furnished and it includes a detached plot of land. The property is located near the village of Pietrabbondante, 20km from ski resorts, 110km from Pescara airport, 130km from Napoli and 220km from Rome.

Pietrabbondante is a small village in Molise protected by typical "morge", or giant stone boulders from which the location takes its name, Pietrabbondante or large stones, and from which it is possible to enjoy a spectacular view over the entire valley covered in beech and oak forests. The village of Pietrabbondante is noted above all for its important archaeological site, testimony of the presence of a Sannita settlement: the area of the Italian Sanctuary. This settlement dates back to the 2nd century BC and is considered one of the main political and religious sanctuaries constructed by the Sannita population. Nowadays the theater has been hosting important theatrical performances at national level for years.
